Strait Times (6/16) noted a GW study regarding terrorists’ use of chat rooms.

Biotech Business Week (6/18) mentioned GW in an article regarding research findings that adults with dementia are still capable of advice giving.

Washingtonpost.com (6/19) noted GW’s Bod Pod housed in the exercise science department.

Newsblaze.com (6/20) mentioned a study by GW International Institute of Tourism regarding the Marine Corps Marathon.

Physician-assistant.advanceweb.com (6/21) noted GW’s physician assistant program for being rated 4th in U.S. News & World Report’s ranking of PA programs in its 2008 issue of America’s Best Graduate Schools.

Biotech Business Week (6/25) published a trend article outlining recent GW research findings.

Publications.mediapost.com (6/28) mentioned GW’s Center on Alcohol Marketing and Youth (CAMY) regarding messages sent by the alcohol industry’s advertisements.

Firstamendmentcenter.org (6/30) mentioned a study by GW’s Institute for Politics, Democracy, and the Internet.

Washington.bizjournals.com (6/22) reported that GW Medical Center hired a consultant to study consolidation options and Washington.bizjournals.com (6/22) noted that the current provost of Johns Hopkins University will become GW’s next president.

Jlab.org (6/18) noted GW in connection with nuclear physics research taking place at the Jefferson Lab.

John Banzhaf, professor of law, was quoted on insurancejournal.com (6/22) regarding lead paint litigation.

Thomas Blanton, National Security Archive, was quoted in Federal News Service (6/25) and interviewed on NBC News: Today (6/25) regarding the handling of classified information.

Nathan Brown, director of Middle East programs and professor of political science and international affairs published “The Peace Process Has No Clothes” in the Carnegie Endowment's newsletter (6/19).

David Brunori, research professor of public policy, was quoted on oregonlive.com (6/27) regarding states making it easier for moviemakers to film in their locale.
Paul Butler, Carville Dickinson Benson Research Professor of Law, was quoted in Anchorage Daily News (6/17) regarding a federal investigation into corruption in Alaska politics.

Frank Cilluffo, associate vice president for homeland security, was quoted on cnsnews.com (6/27) and on opednews.com (6/28) regarding terrorists’ use of the internet.

Patricia Cleary, senior research staff scientist, was quoted in Science Letter (6/19) regarding research developments for Joslin Diabetes Center.

Gene Cohen, professor of health care sciences, was quoted on greenbaypressgazette.com (6/18) regarding his appearance on a documentary regarding continuing creativity in old age.

Carol Darr, director, the Institute for Politics, Democracy, and the Internet, was quoted on ecommercetimes.com (6/17) regarding a racy YouTube music video advocating for Barack Obama and the lack of control candidates have over their media image. Reuters News (6/19) and NPR: Morning Edition (6/20) quoted her regarding Hillary Clinton’s spoof on the Sopranos final episode.

C. Thomas Dienes, Lyle T. Alverson Professor of Law, was quoted in The Baltimore Sun (6/29) regarding the line between public rights and private corporations’ policies.

John Duffy, Oswald Symister Colclough Research Professor of Law, was noted in TR Daily (6/18) for his appointment as adjunct fellow at the Progress & Freedom Foundation.

Mark Feldstein, associate professor of media and public affairs, was quoted in The Salt Lake Tribune (6/27) regarding the release of the CIA’s “family jewels.”

Richard Fritsch, part-time faculty, was quoted in The Washington Post (6/22) regarding spending time with teenagers.

Julie Germany, deputy director, Institute for Politics, Democracy, and the Internet, was quoted on freep.com (6/24) regarding the impact of internet activity on political campaigns.

Eric Goplerud, research professor of health policy, was quoted in Modern Healthcare (6/18) regarding the issue of parity in behavioral health coverage.

Richard Green, director of the Read Estate Institute, director of the Center for Washington Area Studies, and Oliver T. Carr, Jr. Professor of Real Estate Finance, was interviewed on Nightly Business Report (6/25) regarding market predictions for 2007.

Roy Richard Grinker, professor of anthropology & international affairs and human sciences, wrote an article published in The Wall Street Journal (6/30) regarding testimony in U.S. Vaccine Court concerning a case involving whether childhood vaccines have caused autism.
Tee Guidotti, chair of the department of environmental occupational health, acting director of the Center for Risk Science & Public Health, and professor of environmental occupational health, was quoted in Mental Health Weekly Digest (6/18) and in Health & Medicine Week (6/18) regarding children’s vulnerability to environmental health problems.

Henry Hertzfeld, research professor of space policy and international affairs, was quoted on flightglobal.com (6/17) regarding Europe’s developing space policy.

Karl Hobbs, men’s basketball coach, was noted on kstatesports.com (6/30) and Devilsdigest.com (6/30) regarding his position as assistant coach for the 2007 USA U19 World Championship Team.

Peter Hotez, chair of the department of microbiology and professor of microbiology and tropical medicine, was quoted in news-medical.net (6/18) regarding efforts to control river blindness. Pbs.org (6/20) quoted him regarding a case over whether childhood vaccines can cause autism.

Terry Hufford, professor emeritus of botany in residence, was quoted on timescommunity.com (6/20) regarding winners of the USA Biology Olympiad.

Orin Kerr, associate professor of law, was quoted on NPR: Morning Edition (6/19) and abcnews.go.com (6/20) regarding a federal ruling making stored e-mails more private.

John Lill, assistant professor of biology, was quoted on thehill.com (6/20) regarding an unusual swarm of moths in the Capitol buildings.

John Logsdon, research professor of political science and international affairs, was quoted in The Baltimore Sun (6/16) regarding the restoration of several computers on the international space station and in Agence France Presse (6/22) regarding the successful shuttle Atlantis mission.

Edward Maibach, professor of prevention and community health, was quoted in Science Letter (6/19) regarding public health research.

Paul Maniscalco, senior research scientist, was quoted on aero-news.net (6/27) regarding airport security.

Vahid Motevalli, director of the Aviation Institute, SEAS, and associate professor of engineering, was quoted in The Plain Dealer (6/26) and The State (6/30) regarding record-high air traffic.

Fitzhugh Mullan, professor of health policy, was noted on nwitimes.com (6/30) and in Malibu Arts Reviews (6/30) for his appearance on Michael Moore’s new documentary, “Sicko”.

Michael Olding, chief, division of plastic surgery, and associate professor of surgery, was quoted on washingtonpost.com (6/26) regarding lipo-dissolve.
Jerrold Post, professor of political psychology & international affairs, was noted in US Fed News (6/20) and States News Service (6/20) regarding the collective identity of terrorists. Reuters News (6/26) and guardian.co.uk (6/27) quoted him regarding his psychological profile of Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez.

Bernard Reich, professor of political science and international affairs, was quoted in The Christian Science Monitor (6/20) regarding the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Jeffrey Rosen, professor of law, wrote an article posted on nytimes.com (6/30) regarding a Supreme Court decision regarding racial classifications.

Sara Rosenbaum, chair of the department of health policy and professor of health policy, was quoted on americanprogress.org (6/27) regarding children’s health care benefits.

Joshua Schwartz, professor of law, was quoted on businessweek.com (6/19) regarding the monitoring of government contracts.

David Shambaugh, professor of political science and international affairs, was quoted in The Statesman (6/20) regarding China-European relations.

David Shinn was mentioned in “Somalia Needs Power-Sharing” by USINFO (6/19).

Bruce Siegel, research professor of health policy, was quoted in Deseret Morning News (6/24) regarding overcrowding and neglectful care in Martin Luther King Jr.-Harbor Hospital.

Lewis Solomon, Theodore Rinehart Professor Emeritus of Business Law, was quoted in Reuters News (6/19) and in The Times (6/23) regarding local currencies.

Gregory Squires, chair of the department of sociology and professor of sociology and of public policy and public administration, was quoted on politico.com (6/26) regarding “conspicuous consumption”.

Stephen Joel Trachtenberg, president of the university, was quoted on jpost.com (6/18) regarding the University and College Union (UCU) academic boycott.

Susan Verghese, professor of anesthesiology and critical care medicine, was quoted in Biotech Business Week (6/18) regarding the Children’s Hospitals Activate to Manage Pain (CHAMP) survey.

Eva Vincze, program director, criminal justice program, and professor of forensic sciences, was quoted on khaleejtimes.com (6/20) regarding cybercrime.