

CIA Name Files and Subject Files compiled by the Central Intelligence Agency in response to the Disclosure Acts. These files are comprised of documentation from several CIA filing systems and organized under the names of 788 individuals and subjects found in response to many thousands of search terms and subject matter guidance provided to the Agency by the IWG. 419 of the files are newly opened; 369 of the files were opened by the IWG during the last three years. The approximately 60,000 pages of material provide information on wartime crimes; the post-war search for, contact with, and intelligence use of war criminals and Nazi collaborators; and new information on the workings of U.S. intelligence during the early Cold War. The files are in Record Group 263.
