Dear [redacted]

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. §552 as amended), I hereby request disclosure of the following records for inspection and possible copying:

Records prior to 1960 on the late Sam Giancana, a

"top hoodlum" from the Chicago area and records on the FBI's

"top hoodlum" program prior to 1960.

If you regard any of these records as exempt from required disclosure under the Act, I hereby request that you exercise your discretion to disclose them nevertheless.

I further request that you disclose the listed documents as they become available to you, without waiting until all the documents have been assembled.

I am making this request on behalf of The Washington Post, a newspaper of general circulation in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area and throughout the United States. The records closed pursuant to this request will be used in the preparation of news articles for dissemination to the public. Accordingly, I request that, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552 (b)(7)(A), All records in the public interest because the information sought by this request will primarily be for the
