

----- DECLARATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF
RWANDAN REPUBLIC AND THE RWANDAN
PATRIOTIC FRONT

KINIHIRA, DECEMBER 10, 1993

After their meeting today, Friday, December 10, 1993, in Kinyihira, at the invitation of the United Nations Secretary General's Special Representative for Rwanda, the Government of the Rwandan Republic and the Rwandan Patriotic Front, signatory parties of the Arusha Peace Accord of August 4, 1993, adopted the following declaration:

The two parties,

Remembering the Peace of Arusha between the Government of the Rwandan Republic and the Rwandan Patriotic Front, signed August 4, 1993,

Paying tribute to the international community's continued efforts to promote the peace process and assist in putting the Arusha Peace Accord in place,

1. Are delighted at the deployment of the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (UNAMIR) and assure the mission of their full collaboration in the execution of its mandate, as stipulated in Resolution 872 (1993) of the Security Council;
2. Underline the necessity and urgency of creating a peaceful environment to put transitional governmental institutions into place, as stipulated by the Arusha Peace Accord;
3. Reaffirm their engagement to participate in the transitional government, and to initiate the establishment of the Arusha Peace Accord's other provisions;
4. Reaffirm, in addition, their engagement to do everything to establish transitional governmental institutions, in collaboration with UNAMIR, before December 31, 1993;
5. Express their concern about and indignation at the recent massacres and other hostilities, and unequivocally condemn the perpetrators of such atrocities, and call for the respect of the dignity and human rights of all the citizens and residents of Rwanda;
6. Call all Rwandans to support the peace process and cooperate with the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (UNAMIR) as it assists in the implementation of the Arusha Peace Accord.
