I'm inquiring about, and documents I'd like to receive: -- This request is being made under the Freedom Of Information Act as an individual request. I am seeking all documents related to federal funds used to support the Nipon's Conservatory of Music, Inc., (513) 751-3472, where Larry Kaiser is the Founder/CEO located at 235 Stetson Avenue, #504, Cincinnati, OH 45219-2382. This is supposedly a non-profit organization supposedly with a mission to provide free saxophone lessons to inner city youth. I would like those documents that has his mission and/or charter- a listing of his board of directors- a copy of his program operation plan- and any other related public documents outlining Mr. Kaiser's proposed music program operating in Cincinnati, OH. Any fees that would be assessed for providing this information, I respectfully request a waiver, based on the likelihood this info will contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations and or activities of this government funded program. Please send the requested FOIA information to the above mailing address. If you have any questions, please contact me at [] If you have the information on email, you may feel free to send it by email to the above email address.
