

November 14, 1990 – Council of Ministers

International situation. Dumas brings up the situation in the Gulf, his visit to Morocco.

Jacques Pelletier went to Rwanda and the neighboring states. The situation is stabilized, but this lull could be short. An international conference must be held on the situation of Rwandan refugees in the neighboring states, and neutral observers must be placed on the border. Pelletier invited the Rwandan president to take measures in this regard.
