

Vincent
June 1979

-(=====)-

- 1) Attention of people everywhere - riveted on us - some don't want to see success.
- 2) Treaty will be major outcome of meeting -
- 3) Other problems - very difficult
- 4) Must try to resolve some of these problems
- 5) Because of strength of each - special response rests on US & USSR.
- 6) Relations have a certain shape both negative & positive.
- 7) We were allies of Hitler. There could ~~and~~ war poisoned atmosphere -
- 8) There are forces that say detente is a one way street.
- 9) Net of ~~various~~ various bilaterals - living tissues of our relations -
- 10) Don't revise decisions afterwards -
- 11) Soviet line is consistent - peace & broad cooperation - no hostile intentions re US.
- 12) No adv. or benefits at expense of US anywhere.
- 13) USSR - broad global interests - have our friends & treaty obligations.
- 14) Solid with those who struggle - revolutionary changes possible in Eastern Soviet - ag. extent of revolution or counter-revo

15). Don't seek to prejudice the legitimate interests of the U.S. =

16). Have taken note of Pres^t statements re better relations =

Don't understand why U.S. continues to build up military outlays - USSR can't afford to let adv. develop on U.S. side.

17). What is the sense in whipping up arms race.

Real security lies in reducing arms & stockpiles of arms nuclear & otherwise -

18). Concept of combining competition & cooperation. This philosophy roots on ~~past~~ guidelines.

19). Unpardonable atmosphere - re Soviets - is attributed to press & Congress -

But these sentiments are often fanned under line developed by Govt.

20). This meeting should be directed toward future - i.e. better relations & constructive purposes.

21). Does the U.S. want relations to be truly good & stable. are we prepared to conduct affairs of such a basis.