

Fanny Lafourcade

Fanny joined the EU Delegation to the USA in August 2022 as the Deputy Head of Press and Public Diplomacy Section.

She moved from the European Commission, Directorate General Humanitarian Affairs and Civil Protection - DG ECHO, where she was the Political Assistant to the Acting Director General. Prior to that, she held different positions in DG NEAR (Neighbourhood Policy and Enlargement Negotiations) and DG DEVCO (development cooperation).

Before joining the European Commission, Fanny worked for the French diplomatic service as a cooperation attachée, for non-governmental organisations and the academia. Fanny holds a PhD in political science and specialised in Middle East countries modern politics. She lived more than 8 years in Cairo, Damascus, Amman, Bagdad and Jerusalem.

Her areas of expertise include: EU (humanitarian and development cooperation) financial assistance to third countries, EU development policy, EU neighbourhood policy, EU humanitarian policy, public diplomacy.

She speaks French, English, Spanish and Arabic.