The Early Warning Scenarios for the 2002 Brazilian Presidential Elections

A 60 page report listing all the candidates and hopefuls of the Brazilian Presidential elections of 2002, with an evaluation of how they position themselves in relation to 30 public policy issues which may affect business and investment. Further information can be obtained at www.eaw.com.br. In order to receive your e-mail copy of the report at a cost of $495.00, please fill out the following form:

Name:__________________________________________________________________________________
Company (if corporate): ___________________________________________________________________
Address:_________________________________________________________________________________
Telephone:_____________________________Fax:_____________________________________________
E-mail:_________________________________________________________________________________

Make your check for $495.00 payable to Alexandre Barros.
Please mail check to: Institute of Brazilian Issues:
2033 K Street N.W., Suite 230; Washington, DC 20052