Constructing the Narratives of Identity and Power: Self-Imagination in a Young Ukrainian Nation
Part of IERES’s Petrarck Program on Ukraine

with

Karina V. Korostelina
Associate Professor, George Mason University

Karina V. Korostelina’s new book, Constructing the Narratives of Identity and Power, provides a comprehensive outlook on Ukraine through the views of intellectual and political elites. Based on extensive field work in Ukraine, Korostelina describes the complex process of nation building, revealing seven prevailing conceptual models of Ukraine and five dominant narratives of national identity. Korostelina describes the differences and conflicting elements of the national narratives that constitute the contested arena of nation-building in Ukraine and explains the current violence in the country.
