The Euro Crisis and the Erosion of Democracy:
Austerity Lessons from the Gold Standard and the Dangers of Dis-embedding Liberalism
Part of IERES' European Politics Series

with

Matthias Matthijs
Johns Hopkins-SAIS

Professor Matthijs specializes in the politics of economic crises, the role of economic ideas in economic policymaking, international and comparative political economy, and regional integration. His current research focuses on the global financial crisis, Europe's sovereign debt crisis, the domestic and international politics of austerity, and the global battle for economic ideas. Professor Matthijs received the 2010 Samuel H. Beer Prize for Best Dissertation in British Politics by a North American Scholar awarded by the British Politics Group of the American Political Science Association. He is the author of Ideas and Economic Crises in Britain from Attlee to Blair (Routledge) and numerous journal articles. Professor Matthijs received his Ph.D. in international relations from Johns Hopkins University-SAIS.

A copy of Prof. Matthijs’ paper will be made available to those who RSVP.

Friday, March 29, 2013
12:00 – 1:30 pm
Voesar Conference Room
1957 E Street NW, Suite 412
Please RSVP at http://go.gwu.edu/Matthijs

This event is on the record