What Lies Ahead
Russia’s Political and Energy Outlooks Over the Next Decade

Monday, April 22nd • 6:00pm - 7:15pm
Elliott School of International Affairs
1957 E Street NW, Washington, DC 20052
Henry Harding Auditorium, Room 213

A catered reception will take place outside the auditorium at 5:30pm.

Robert W. Orttung
Associate Research Professor of International Affairs
Institute for European, Russian, and Eurasian Studies

Oleg Kozlovsky
Ph.D. Student, Higher School of Economics, Moscow
Fulbright Scholar

Professor Orttung came to GW after working at the Open Media Research Institute, EastWest Institute, American University's Transnational Crime and Corruption Center, and the Jefferson Institute. Orttung works as the assistant director of the Institute for European, Russian, and Eurasian Studies. Orttung is also a visiting fellow at the Center for Security Studies of the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Zurich.

Oleg Kozlovsky is a Fulbright Visiting Researcher working on his dissertation, which examines the influence of Ukraine’s Orange Revolution on Russian political life. His academic interests include non-violent political resistance movements, democratic revolutions, as well as use of new media for advancing freedom and democracy. Oleg is known in Russia as a civil rights activist, change agent, and blogger.

http://dperussia.eventbrite.com

Presented by:
Delta Phi Epsilon
Professional Foreign Service Fraternity