Professor Sally Nikoline Cummings teaches in the School of International Relations, University of St. Andrews. Her more recent publications include Understanding Central Asia (2012), Sovereignty after Empire: Comparing the Middle East and Central Asia (co-ed, 2012) and Symbolism and Power in Central Asia: Politics of the Spectacular (ed. 2010). In late 2009 she commissioned two prominent Kyrgyz artists to develop over a three-year period twelve visual art exhibits that captured the emotions surrounding the 2005 transfer of power. The resulting exhibition, (...) Ketsin!, premiered in London in May 2013. Professor Cummings will discuss the story of this exhibition and what it tells us about political intention and art, the nature of the 2005 events, and the artist in times of political upheaval.
