Carl Linden, Professor Emeritus of Political Science and International Affairs, was one of the founding members of the Institute for European, Russian, and Eurasian Studies. Highly respected as a specialist on political philosophy, he made a name for himself as one of the preeminent authorities on Nikita Khrushchev and the Thaw Era in the Soviet Union. Carl will be remembered as an erudite intellectual, a popular teacher, a wonderful colleague, and one of the most active members of our institute community. Colleagues and friends will share their memories of Carl and present drafts of scholarly articles for an up-coming special issue of Perspectives on Political Science.

Speakers include

Albert Schmidt, Professor Emeritus of History, University of Bridgeport
Jack Moran, Professor of Political Science and International Affairs, Kennesaw State University
Lijun Gu, Professor, St. John's College, Annapolis
Peter Rollberg, Director, IERES, The George Washington University
