Ukraine’s 2012 Parliamentary Elections
Part of IERES’ Petrach Program on Ukraine

with

Taras Kuzio
Former visiting professor, IERES

Robert Orttung
Assistant Director, IERES

Olena Rybiy
I. F. Kuras Institute of Political and Ethnic Studies (Ukraine)

Ukraine’s October 28, 2012, parliamentary elections will determine the next steps in the consolidation or further deterioration of democracy in the country. This presentation will provide an analysis of the elections in their immediate aftermath and place the Ukrainian elections within the broader trends evolving across Eurasia.

Taras Kuzio is the author of numerous books and articles on Ukraine and a frequent commentator in the media. Robert Orttung is the managing editor of Demokratizatsiya: The Journal of Post-Soviet Democratization, which is planning a special issue on Ukraine. Olena Rybiy is a Research Scholar at the I. F. Kuras Institute of Political and Ethnic Studies (Ukraine). She joined IERES as a Carnegie Fellow in September and is working on a project entitled “Institutional Analysis of Political Reform in Post-Soviet Ukraine.”

Thursday, November 1, 2012
12:00 – 1:30 pm
Linder Family Commons
1957 E Street, NW, Room 602
Please RSVP at http://go.gwu.edu/Ukraine

A light lunch will be served
This event is on the record