November 9th 2014 marks the 25th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall - a memorable day in history that led to Germany's reunification. A series of political protests in East Berlin brought down the Wall after the city had been divided for over a quarter of a century. On November 9, 1989, crowds celebrated the opening of border crossings between East and West Berlin. This event will provide backgrounds of the events leading up to this day. Our panelists will share their personal experience and provide perspectives from both East and West Germany.

We are looking forward to seeing you on November 12, 2014.

Sincerely yours,
Claus Gramekow
