The EU at the Crossroads:
Political and Economic Perspectives
An IERES 50th Anniversary Discussion

The Making of Europe
Theo Christov, Assistant Professor of Honors and History

The Euro Crisis
Henry Farrell, Assistant Professor of Honors and History

Recent and Coming Elections (France, UK, Germany)
Harvey Feigenbaum, Professor of Political Science and International Affairs

The EU and its Neighborhood
Michael Sodaro, Professor of Political Science and International Affairs

Financial Implications of the Euro Crisis
Scheherazade Rehman, Professor of International Business and International Affairs

Migration and European politics
Kimberly Morgan, Associate Professor of Political Science

Please join us for an evening discussion with GW’s leading scholars of Europe. The presenters will offer brief overviews of their topics and then we will open the floor for questions from the audience. The panel will examine the origins of Europe and then look at the difficult political and economic questions that call into question the future of the European Union.

Wednesday, November 30, 2011
6:00-6:30 Reception
6:30-8:00 Panel Discussion with questions from the audience
Alumni House - 1918 F Street, NW

Please RSVP at http://tinyurl.com/EUCrossroads

This event is on the record.
This event is made possible with support from the Maria H. Davis European Studies Endowment.