The Institute for European, Russian and Eurasian Studies (IERES) and the Institute for International Economic Policy (IIEP) are pleased to invite you to:

A Regional Approach to Global Governance: Economic and Political Development in Southeast Europe and the Black Sea

with

Giorgio Dominese

Giorgio Dominese is founder of the Central Eastern European University Network (CEEUN), coordinator of Transition Studies World Research, and editor of Transition Studies Review. After lecturing at Ca’ Foscari Venice University, he is now professor of global economic, financial and policy governance at Rome Tor Vergata University. Previously, he was chair of economic and policy of transitions for almost 10 years at LUISS University Rome. Dr. Dominese is the Italian representative of the Business Advisory Council for Southeast Europe, a group of businesspeople and investors that discuss the challenges and opportunities in the region. He is a member of the Scientific Boards of WiFo (the Austrian Institute of Economic Research) and Institut für den Donauraum und Mitteleuropa (IDM) and of several other Italian and international research institutions. Dr. Dominese has experience in the fields of international economics, finance, political science and international relations, and has published numerous pieces in domestic and international outlets.

Thursday, April 15, 2010
1:00 – 2:30 p.m.
Lindner Family Commons
1957 E Street, NW, Room 602
Please RSVP to ieressgwu@gwu.edu.
This event is on the record.