The Institute for European, Russian and Eurasian Studies (IERES),
The Institute for International Economic Policy (IIEP)
and
The Embassy of Montenegro, Washington, D.C. are pleased to invite you to:

The Global Economic Crisis: A View from Montenegro
Part of IERES' Eurasian Leadership Series

with

Milorad Katnić
Finance Minister, Montenegro

The global economic crisis that began in 2008 continues to roil international politics and markets. Montenegro’s Finance Minister will provide a policy-maker’s perspective on how his country is addressing the situation. Additionally, he will analyze the implications for Europe and the US.

Dr. Milorad Katnić has served as Montenegro's Finance Minister since 2010. From 2004 until 2010, he served as Deputy Minister and took part in the implementation of the most significant structural reforms of the Montenegrin economy, including in the financial, fiscal and pension sectors. He serves as a head of the Working Group and Negotiating Team on Montenegro’s accession to the European Union (in charge of economic and financial issues and statistics) and is a coordinator of the Negotiating Team on Montenegro’s accession to the World Trade Organization (in charge of the financial services area). He recently defended his doctoral dissertation on the topic "Public Consumption and Economic Growth."

Tuesday, April 19, 2011
12:00-1:00 p.m.
A light lunch will be served beginning at 11:45
1957 E Street, NW, Room 505
Please RSVP with your name and affiliation to IERES at ieresswu@gwu.edu or to the Embassy at usa@mfa.gov.me or (202) 234-6108.

This event is on the record.