Central Asian Affairs
Call for Papers

The Central Asia Program is excited to announce the launch of a new journal, Central Asian Affairs.

Central Asian Affairs is a peer-reviewed journal that is published three times per year by Brill Publishers. It aims to feature innovative social science research on contemporary developments in the wider Central Asian region and raise the standards of scholarship for Central Eurasian Studies. Its coverage includes Central Asia, Afghanistan, Mongolia, the Caucasus, Xinjiang, neighboring powers (China, Iran, Pakistan, India, Russia, Turkey), and the role of leading international powers and donors in this region.

Central Asian Affairs informs scholarly discourse and policy discussions on the region by engaging scholars from across the academic arena, drawing on a diverse array of disciplines including political science, sociology, anthropology, economics, development studies, and security studies.

Central Asian Affairs is organized into three categories: a features section, with articles on various topics; a thematic cluster with articles that delve deeper into a specific topic, often of interest to current affairs; and a discussion around a book that engages both reviewers and author. The recipient of the CAP Best Graduate Paper is offered the opportunity to publish in CAA. Submit your manuscript at http://www.editorialmanager.com/caa/default.asp.
