Cinema Club Screening: Stroiteli (2013)

Three siblings - two teenage brothers and their little sister - are evicted from their apartment. The youngsters' last hope rests on a plot of land outside of the city, to which they have a legitimate claim. But soon officials arrive in a jeep to tell them that, unless they build a foundation within the next two weeks, the land will be confiscated.

A sober film by Kazakh film director Adilkhan Erzhanov about the everyday challenges of life in contemporary Kazakhstan.
